NO. 42.

MONDAY EVENING'S STORM.

Lightning Plays Its Pranks In Several Directions, Though No Serious Loss Occurs.

On Monday evening, about 6:30 o'clock, a fierce storm of wind and rain, accompanied by heavy thunder and lightning visited this city and vicinity.

The residence of Col. E. H. Taylor, Jr., just outside the city limits, was struck by lightning and the couple badly damaged and the family considerably shocked and shaken up.

The smoke-house attached to the residence of Capt. John R. Spiers on Campbell street, was visited by the electric fluid and a considerable slice torn out, but, strange to say, the building was not burned.

Mrs. C. G. Mutzenburgh, who lives close by Capt. Spiers, was at work in her kitchen at the time, and was knocked down by the current and badly stunned, feeling the effects of the stroke for some hours afterwards.

The telephone wires were struck several times and three or four loud reports proceeded from the East Tennessee Co.'s office, on Main street, many people being led to believe that the office had been damaged.

The water poured down in sheets, so that the sewers, on Clinton street, were choked, and the street, from Lewis street west to the river, was a lake of water, from six inches to two feet in depth.

The weather, which had been close and sultry, became much cooler and more pleasant rendering sleep that night delightful.

It is miraculous that no serious damage was done.

WITH HIGH HONORS.

Mr. J. McCluskey Blayne, Jr., of this city, graduated at the Harvard Law School, New Haven, Conn., this week with high honors. Mr. Blayne is the youngest son of Rev. Dr. J. McCluskey Blayne, sr., of this city, and is a talented young man. He studied law with his uncle, Gen. Dan W. Lindsey.

BURGLARS ABOUT.

Citizens of the South Side are complaining of the depredations of some sneak thieves. The smoke house of Mr. E. J. Roberts, of this office, was broken into on Monday night, and some clothing carried away. No very serious loss has occurred as yet.

BIG EXCURSION PARTY.

The Falls City was crowded, on Tuesday, with two big excursion parties for up the river parties. One composed of about 100 people, was from Indianapolis, Ind. The other, composed of some 25 people, was from Benton Harbor, Mich. They were having a grand time. The several write-ups of up-Kentucky river scenery has called the attention of people all over the country to this section and excursions are following one another.

OFF FOR MISSISSIPPI.

The Capitol Commission left on Tuesday for Jackson, Miss., to inspect the new State Capitol of that State. They will be gone a week or ten days.

TO DELIVER ADDRESS.

Judge O. S. Deming, of Mt. Olive, Robertson county, has accepted an invitation to deliver an address at the meeting of the Blue and the Gray, at St. Louis, Mo., on Friday, July 15th.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

The Court of Appeals, which had determined to adjourn on Saturday, found that there was some business that they had not disposed of, and did not adjourn until Monday, when they adjourned to court in course, which will be Sept. 19.

They did not decide the case of Commonwealth v. Caleb Powers.

BIG EXCURSION CROWD.

More than 140 persons took advantage of the low rate excursion to Cincinnati, run by the F. & C. and the O. & C. railroads, on Sunday last. The fare was only $1.25 for the round trip.

The same reads will run another excursion on Sunday, July 17, for the same fare. The train will leave here at 7 o'clock, a. m. and returning leave Cincinnati at 8 o'clock, p. m.

WON TRIP TO ST. LOUIS.

Miss Lena Kirtley, of this city, won one of the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune's trip tickets to St. Louis in the voting contest just closed.

FOURTH OF JULY MARCHERS.

Mr. L. A. Trumbo, who is a graduate of the old Kentucky Military Institute, is raising a company of marchers for the 4th of July parade. He now has some 25 young men in the company and wants more than that number more. The uniform will be white pants, blue coat, red necktie, blue cap with white band and cane.

This company will add very much to the attractiveness of the parade.

BURGLARY.

The grocery store of Mr. Chas. W. Saffell, Masonic Temple, Ann street, was broken into, on Monday night by burglars.

It seems that the big solid iron door leading to the rear had the lock broken off by the thieves, the glass door smashed and thus entrance was gained.

Some $12 in cash was taken from the cash register and probably other things from the store.

The same thieves attempted to gain admission to the hardware house of Mr. Frank G. Stagg, adjoining on the south, but were unable to gain entrance.

A little more vigilance on the part of the police would help things, and a dose of cold lead would cool the ardor of the thieves.

SAVE THE CHILDREN.

Statistics will prove that a large per centage of deaths among children may be traced to complications arising from the early souring of milk by bacteria. Cholera Infantum is the most fatal disease of infancy, and common, especially with bottle-fed infants. Perry Davis' Fainkiller in this emergency is the best remedy and saves many a child's life while the doctor is coming. 25 and 50c. bottles.

BOY POSTOFFICE ROBBERS.

Nathan Croon and Harry Tieg, both of Shelby county, aged respectively 12 and 13 years, were arrested and brought to this city, on Saturday, by Special Officer Phil Thompson, charged with breaking into and robbing the post office at Scott's Station, Shelby county. The young thieves only obtained about $2 in money.

They were brought before U. S. Commissioner Chapman, on Monday, and held over to the U. S. Court.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

While the storm was raging, on Monday evening, Mr. Geo. Troxell, who lives at McKee's Crossroads, was coming in from a tobacco field, on the farm of Mr. Pat O'Brien, near Jetts, when a bolt of lightning struck and instantly killed him. He was an unmarried man without family.

PARALYZED.

While at Owenton, on Monday, in the prosecution of his canvass for the Democratic nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals, Judge Jas. E. Cantrell suffered a partial stroke of paralysis, the entire left side being involved. Owing to Judge Cantrell's size and age, it is feared that the stroke may be a very serious one.

Dr. Weaver's Syrup Purifies the blood; Cures (ointment) for the skin.

DISTINGUISHED LAWYER AND PROMINENT MASON DIES FROM APOPLEXY.

Judge J. Soule Smith, one of the most prominent lawyers of the Lexington bar, and one of the brightest and best informed Masons in Kentucky, was stricken with apoplexy, on Monday morning, while in the flower garden of his residence in Lexington and died instantly.

Judge Smith was a self-made man, having started in life without a dollar at the conclusion of the civil war in which he enlisted as a Confederate soldier when only 15 years of age.

He had served as City Attorney of Lexington, County Attorney of Fayette county, Recorder of the City Court, City Councilman and City Assessor.

The matter of his dearest love and warmest devotion, however, was the Masonic Fraternity. His fund of information in this regard was simply marvelous and his magnificent memory was stored with the lore of that grand order. He had filled some of the highest offices in the order with rare distinction, honor and profit to the fraternity.

The funeral obsequies were held in Lexington on Wednesday last, and the large attendance testified to the high esteem in which our brother and friend was held in the city of his adoption.

FRANKLIN COUNTY SUNDAY-SCHOOL CONVENTION.

In another column of to-day's issue of the Roundabout will be found the program for the above named convention.

This promises to be one of the most successful of the annual meetings.

Mr. T. C. Gohar, of Henderson, Ky., Field Worker for Kentucky Sunday-school Association, will be with us and will have charge of the Round Table Exercises. These exercises are very interesting and instructive.

All the Sunday-schools of the county are earnestly requested to send delegates.

In order that these gatherings may not be a burden to any community in the way of entertainment, all who can conveniently do so are expected to bring lunch baskets.

Bethel Baptist Church, place of meeting, is situated about four miles from Frankfort on the Owen-ton pike.

RUNAWAY.

A horse attached to the buggy of Mr. J. B. Polk became frightened, on Broadway street, Thursday afternoon, and ran away. It turned up Lewis street and fell, when reaching Main street, dashing the buggy against the plate glass window of Mr. W. S. Farmer, luckily not breaking the glass. The horse was captured then and no further damage done. One wheel and a shaft of the buggy were broken.

BIRTHS.

CRUTCHER.—In Los Angeles, Cal., on Sunday, to Mr. Albert H. Crutcher and wife, a daughter—Roberta Clarkson.

A DANGEROUS DESCENT.

Another Underlying of Two Daring Workmen on the Niagara Suspension Bridge.

Reckless daring is so often displayed by workmen whose daily labor places them in positions of danger that those who have to deal with them are astonished at no feat of bravado. Mr. Frank Skinner gives in McClure's Magazine an instance of this daring on the part of men who were engaged in repairing the Niagara suspension bridge.

It happened that so many valuable tools were dropped from the bridge that some of the more careless losers were discharged. Consequently, when one day a man dropped a wrench 200 feet to the water's edge, he foolishly started to recover it by descending hand over hand on a steeply inclined, thin wire cable nearly 500 feet long.

He had no sooner started on his insane exploit than a rival, out of sheer bravado, essayed to descend an adjacent rope. After going a few feet they both realized the almost impossible nature of the journey they had undertaken, and tried to return. It could not be done, and the only chance of safety lay in continuing their descent.

It seemed to their horrified companions that human muscles could not endure the increasing strain of the long passage downward. The foreman shouted instructions, interspersed with violent abuse, the object of which was to divert them from the fright that added to their danger.

By what seemed almost a miracle both men held on until they had crossed the water. Then one of them dropped safely into a tree top. The other finally gave out and fell a considerable distance to the ground. Both, however, escaped practically unhurt.

Dr. Cady's Condition Powders, are just what a horse needs when in bad condition. Tonic, blood purifier and vermifuge. They are not food but medicine and the best use to put a horse in prime condition. Price 2 cents per package.

PHENOMENAL MEMORIES.

A Noted Scientist Who Could at Once Recall the Names of 25,000 Plants.

Many of the greatest men have had phenomenal memories. Caesar knew the names of thousands of soldiers in his legions. A modern man of science often has a prodigious memory for special terminology. Prof. Asa Gray assured me, says Prof. E. S. Holden, in Harper's Magazine, that he could at once recall the names of something like 25,000 plants; Prof. Theodore Gill could do the same for fishes. Our memory for mere words is itself much more extensive than is generally admitted. The average well-to-do child of two years of age has a vocabulary of some 500 words, and its father may have the command of 20,000 more. The 10,000 verses of Bisho's have for 3,000 years been accurately preserved in the memories of the Brahmins. Not one Brahmin alone, but thousands, can today recite it word for word. Thousands of Mohammedans, likewise, know the Koran by heart, as all learned Chinese know their classic books. The chiefs of Polynesia can and do repeat hundreds of thousands of words in their genealogies—taking days and even weeks for the recitation.

Hundreds of pianists can play all day, and many days, by memory, and have myself seen Von Huebner conduct Beethoven's fifth symphony without a score. Chess players have a visualizing memory, while arithmetical prodigies may have any one of the three or a combination of all.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with its cold, or its continuing lingering for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Roscher's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough, or cold, or its continuing use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cold, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. PROF. FROGGE.

Sketch of Retiring Superintendent of Frankfort City Schools.

In the recent change of the superintendent at the city school, we lose Prof. S. L. Frogge. While not a native of Frankfort, he is a Kentuckian by birth, having been raised on a farm in Logan county, near Russellville. Prof. Frogge's father was Rev. Timothy C. Frogge, a member of the Louisville Conference, M. E. Church South, and while stationed at Scottsville, the subject of this sketch was born. He attended the neighborhood school until he was fifteen years old, when he was entered in old Greenville College. Was graduated at Bethel College, Russellville, Ky., in 1877, with the degree of A. B., receiving the degree of A. M. in 1880. Prof. Frogge has made teaching his life. He has filled nearly every position in this professional field, commencing to teach when a mere boy, in the country schools of McLean and Logan counties. This year will complete twenty-seven and one-half years of continual school work. Since finishing his college course he has filled the position of county teacher, county superintendent and city superintendent. The testimonials which preceded him in his work here four years ago show the high esteem in which he was held by patrons in the field of his labors. Since his stay in Frankfort he has been offered the superintendency of three cities and the presidency of two colleges, but feeling that his work here was incomplete, though the course had been strengthened, and made more modern in many places, since his advent—he turned aside the more flattering offers and remained here, to the benefit of education has, from year to year, unreservedly commended his work, and re-elected him without opposition. He has been so successful in his work here, that his work was unsatisfactory.

During his life Prof. Frogge has educated quite a number of young men. A great many of them holding educational positions of importance in the State today. And not one of these adopted sons but proudly claims that the course of their lives were turned by him. He has been modern in his work, a very flattering and lucrative position and will no doubt take advantage of it. Prof. Frogge has greatly endeared himself to teacher and pupil who will regret his loss.

We heartily endorse every word of the above, which is taken from our contemporary, the Kentucky Journal, of May 8th.

Dr. Weaver's Treatment. Syrup purifies the blood, cures skin eruptions.

FIGHT WILL BE BITTER.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, but ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall, Miss, has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvements came in four or five days. She is entirely cured here." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

FREE NEWSPAPERS IN HOTELS

Ownership Might That Was Not Understood by a Feminine Guest.

"What a brute!" I heard a lady say as I rose from the dining table in the hotel, says the Chicago Inter Ocean. I did not know that I was the person to whom she referred till afterward, when a friend of mine who was sitting at a table near by spoke of the matter.

"The lady at your table last night thought you were a brute," he remarked, laughingly.

"I heard her use the word, but it never occurred to me that she was the person she alluded to. What did I do?" I asked.

"You carried off your newspaper." "Well," I asked, "what of that?" It was mine.

"I gathered from what she said to the waiter," continued my friend, "that in the town where she lives the hotel furnishes its guests with the daily papers. They are placed on the tables in the dining-room and are free to all. She supposed all hotels did the same, and that you were carrying off a paper that was common property. She considered you a brute, because she was not accustomed to seeing hotel guests buy their papers."

A gigantic tunnel, the subject of a tunnel connecting Ireland and Scotland has been brought before the British government, and the project will be pushed if the requisite financial support can be obtained. The estimated cost is $50,000,000. The route provisionally selected is from Stranraer in Scotland to Belfast in Ireland. The total distance is 51 1/2 miles, of which 34 1/2 miles would be under the sea, along a line where the maximum depth is 180 feet. Electric motors would be used to drive the trains at an average speed of 60 to 70 miles per hour. Youth's Companion.

NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

This grand body of educators meets in St. Louis, Mo., on Monday next, June 27. Prof. S. L. Frogge, of this city, is State Director for Kentucky, and leaves to-morrow (Sunday) night for that place.

We take the following clipping from the Southern School Journal:

For many years a few Kentuckians like Superintendents Bartholomew, Rhoads, Frogge and Mark have been faithful in their attendance upon the N. E. A. These men are in the very front rank of progressive educators. If men like these find it profitable to attend the N. E. A. regularly, what about the great army of public teachers who never attend even one session of that body?

The inquiry with which this clipping closes is a very pertinent one, especially to this section of the State.

A little life may be sacrificed to sudden attack of group if you don't have Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil on hand for the emergency.

OUT WITH THE TIDE.

An Illustrative Instance of How Far It Will Carry Objects in a Short Time.

"Few persons have any idea of how fast the tide runs, or how far it will carry an object in a very few hours," said the captain of one of the dock department's steam launches, according to the New York Times. "Not very long ago a raft of 40 or 50 pigs broke up and went adrift one night at the foot of East Twenty-fourth street. As these pigs cost all the way from eight dollars to $20 apiece, they were worth chasing, so just as soon as the loss was discovered in the morning I started out.

"The search continued down the East river and along the Brooklyn side through Buttermilk channel, but without results. As we went on the shore of Governor's island we found eight or ten of the missing sticks. We ran along down by Bay Ridge, and had about decided to abandon our efforts when we reached Fort Hamilton. But we thought we might as well make a good job of it, and a little way farther on, just beyond the Narrows and around on the north side of Gravesend, we found about half of the wayward pigs. They had traveled down there, a distance of about ten miles, on one tide, and I thought at the time that it was small wonder that so many drowned bodies are never recovered in these parts."

Remarkable Escape.

One of the greatest curiosities in the neighborhood of New York is now to be seen at the foot of the Palisades. Between two frame houses built there is a giant boulder 25 feet high and 20 feet wide, which fell from a great height, at the top of the Palisades, and sweeping down the front of the cliffs, uprooted big trees, tore up the loose stone and cut a wide swath the entire distance. Finally, after staggering from one side to the other, it rolled in between two frame houses and stopped there. The people were asleep in the houses when the rock started. They had barely time to make their escape when it made its appearance at their front doors. They are now thanking their lucky stars that the enormous stone did not hit one of the buildings.

COST OF MEERSCHAUM.

The Expense to Meet in the New Material But in the Making of the Pipes.

A fire in a pipe-maker's shop the other day spoiled a vast quantity of the material from which the bowls are made, and incidentally disposed of the idea, common in most smokers' minds, that this commodity is very expensive. Meerschaum itself is not expensive. That used by the manufacturers in this country is imported as raw material from Austria, but most of it is obtained in Asia Minor. Usually there are three or four different grades running from the rough and mixed to the pure and finely grained article. There is no duty upon it. The chunks, not unlike Canoe coal in shape, are packed in oblong boxes, about two feet and a half long, a foot wide, and a foot high. The raw material is quite brittle and has to be soaked in water before it is used for modeling.

Meerschaum pipes are expensive, says the New York Post, because most of the material from which the bowls are made has to be thrown away before a piece is found that has no flaws in it. The shavings, however, are never wasted. They are used to make a cheaper grade of pipes, which are known as chip meerschaums.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Rest, loss nights and the exhaustion due to continuing the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warm climate, yet will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are a small percentage. Use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 50c. At all druggists. 1 yr.

UGLY CHARGES.

One of the most revolting cases that has ever occurred in this section of the country, transpired last week at the Lexington post house, if the charges as made by the friends of the victim—Mr. J. W. Gibson—are true.

It seems that Mr. Gibson contracted small-pox when employed as a carpenter by a family by the name of Shropshire, in Fayette county. He went to his home, at the extreme edge of Lexington (removed some hundreds of feet from other houses), and was quarantined in his own house. The health officer compelled him to go to the post house, contrary to his will.

It is charged that the physician at the post house only visited the man once; that the nurse neglected him; that he was left alone some twenty-four hours; that he died alone and the body was left neglected some thirty-six hours, while his family were informed that he was doing well and would soon be out; that only a few minutes before the family learned that he was dead, he was reported as greatly better; that the body was left so long unattended to, before an undertaker was summoned, that it swelled and burst and the exudations had run over the bed and floor of the room to such an extent as caused the undertaker great trouble in getting ventilation enough to handle the body.

The man was a brother-in-law of U. S. Deputy Marshal Rousseau True, of this city, and had other relatives here.

His family and Mr. True make these charges and stand ready to substantiate them, so they claim.

If these things be true, it is a case that calls for a thorough and vigorous investigation and the severest punishment of the guilty parties.

Deadly

Grasp of Grip Prostrated Me.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Built Up My

Shattered Nerves and Gave Me an Appetite.

Of the millions of people, who today suffer from nervous or heart weakness, a large percentage trace the cause directly to deadly LaGrippe. It is a germ disease, and makes a direct attack upon the nerves, putting an extra strain upon them at the time their vitality is at the lowest ebb. If LaGrippe has left you with a shattered nervous system, with loss of appetite, lack of energy, insomnia, frequent headaches and morbid tendencies, you should strengthen the weakened nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It will undo all that grip has done, bring back appetite, rest and restore the nerves to their normal activity.

"I want to write this testimonial for the benefit of those who have suffered from that dreaded disease—LaGrippe. I suffered several weeks with it, and my mind seemed to be in any way, shape or form (I suffered almost death) and finally my doctor recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine to me and I can truthfully say from the first day I felt better than in weeks. It gave me relief, built up my shattered nerves and gave me a splendid appetite. I cannot speak too highly of it and want to say each and every one who has suffered from LaGrippe will find instant relief by getting a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Insist on having it and take no other. It is simply splendid. Hoping this will benefit some other sufferer. I remain, —MAS. GEORGE H. HALL, Jackson, Tenn.

CAREFUL DRIVING — CAREFUL SHOEHING.

On Sunday afternoon, in the short space of an hour, we saw five horses slip and fall on the brick streets, on the square bounded by St. Clair and Ann streets, on Main, and several others slipped without falling.

Part of this was due to reckless driving, but the greater part to the fact that the horses were not properly shod for driving on brick streets. Several of the animals, on doubt, showed up on Monday morning, considerably bunged up, and one, in all probability, badly strained as its hind legs were thrown in different directions.

We would respectfully suggest to drivers more careful driving on brick streets than on Macadam, and to those having charge of horses, that they watch and see when the horse's shoes become slippery and have the defect remedied.

THE HOUSE OF FULFILLMENT.

George Madden Martin is repeating her "Emmy Lou" success in her first novel, "The House of Fulfillment," now running serially in McClure's. In the July installment, the third, she brings her characters into the heart of things and introduces her charming young heroine into the real life of her world. She is learning what it is to love and be loved, to assume responsibilities, to face and conquer the problems of life, and she carries her readers in closest sympathy with her. The care of her mother, the coming of suitors, the management of her affairs, and her entrance into society are all making for character in Alexina and you follow her unfolding with keenest interest.

BIG SUCCESS.

The picnic given by the Frankfort Cornet Band, on Tuesday last, at Cove Spring Park, was a big success in every way. The fun was kept up until way towards morning of Wednesday, and the street cars were kept busy until daylight carrying out and bringing back the crowds.

VALUABLE MAN DIES.

Capt. Harry B. Jenks, one of the most efficient and best posted officers of the postoffice department, was found dead in a berth on a sleeping car, on Friday morning, when returning from a business trip to Chicago, Ills. He died from angina pectoris.

Capt. Jenks was appointed to his position originally from Massachusetts, but had lived many years in Kentucky and married a Covington lady.

ANOTHER DEPARTMENT.

The Kentucky Farmer and Breeder, the weekly farm and stock paper established at Lexington the first of the year, which has broken all circulation records by obtaining a paid in advance circulation of 12,500 within three and one-half months, of its establishment, has just added another department of interest and value to its subscribers. It has induced Mr. Hector F. Hillenmeyer, the leading horticulturist, not only of Kentucky, but of the Central States, to take charge of a department of correspondence in which all inquiries pertaining to fruit and forest trees, to vines, and agricultural produce will be answered. Any inquiries on any of these subjects addressed to The Kentucky Farmer and Breeder will be answered by Mr. Hillenmeyer in the succeeding issue.

To wide and varied experience Mr. Hillenmeyer adds accurate and scientific information, with the power of clear expression in perfect English. His services could not be obtained by any paper save through his desire to give to others the benefit of his knowledge and experience, and he has consented to conduct this department for the subscribers of The Kentucky Farmer and Breeder purely as a labor of love. The paper and the wide circle of people who read it are to be congratulated upon the establishment of this department under Hillenmeyer's able direction.

THE KENTUCKY CHAUTAUQUA.

In a few days the annual Chautauqua feast will be opened at beautiful Woodlawn Park, Lexington. Everything is now being put in readiness. The trees were never greener. The shade never more grateful. Soon the white tents in great numbers will be pitched about the beautiful grounds. The great auditorium will be decorated, and everything will be in readiness for the opening of the session.

Multitudes of earnest people look forward with great anticipation for the coming of the Chautauqua. It means so much to the social and intellectual life of the State. For eighteen years they have been listening with interest to the great lecturers of the American platform, and have enjoyed the rare music and rich entertainments which have been provided. The expense of these entertainments to those who purchase season tickets is trivial in the extreme—bringing such entertainment as ordinarily cost from 50c. to $1 to those who have season tickets at about 10c.

Now that the Chautauqua no longer owns its own grounds, and is thrown upon its own resources, the lovers of the enterprise should manifest their interest in it by purchasing this year's season ticket. More than a thousand such tickets should be sold to the good people before the gates are thrown open and the Chautauqua commences. The rich program justifies the expectation that this will be one of the best sessions of the assembly.

The days from June 28th to July 8th will be filled with rare pleasures and enjoyments. In this crucial year, when the outcome will decide the future, as far as the Kentucky Chautauqua is concerned, the people of Kentucky should give the enterprise their heartiest co-operation.

Splendid work for the children has also been provided with Woman's Conferences of interest under the control of the Woman's Council, and Biblical work under the direction of leaders. Dr. M. M. Parkhurst.

CARLISLE COMMANDERY, NO. 18, K. T.

We take the following from the Nicholas News, of June 18:
KNIGHT TEMPLAR BANQUET.

Carlisle Commandery, No. 18, Knights Templar, was constituted Thursday, three candidates exalted and a magnificent banquet served at the Kimbrough House in the evening.

The Commandery was honored by the presence of the following Grand Officers:
Right Excellent Past Grand Commander Geo. A. Lewis, Right Excellent Grand Commander Robert R. Burman, Grand Generalissimo Thos. A. Keith, Grand Junior Warden Jos. H. Ewalt, Grand Prelate John G. Cramer, Grand Recorder A. H. Bryant, Grand Captain of the Guard M. P. Brown, and Sir A. Detweiler, of Coeur d'Alene Commandery.

The members and officers of the Commandery are highly elated at the auspicious prospects of their Commandery, at their very enjoyable banquet, which was certainly one of the social events of the year, being without doubt and in all earnestness a gathering of "fair women and brave men," and they hope and believe that Carlisle Commandery No. 18 will take rank in a very short time as one of the best organizations of the State, advocating the high ideals of their order, protection to its members and their families, and the highest types of good citizenship. "Long may it wave," and may success attend its every effort. We regret that lack of space prevents a fuller account of the proceedings, together with the names of ladies and Knights attending the banquet.

After the institution of the commandery the subordinate officers were installed as follows:

John D. Allen, Senior Warden, Jas. B. Cray, Junior Warden, R. R. Russell, Prelate, Wm. H. Harris, Recorder, Thos. L. McCann, Treasurer, Geo. B. Spencer, Standard Bearer, Henry S. Darnell, Sword Bearer, Foster V. Cox, Warden, Joel A. Day, Sentinel.

"THE BIGGEST THING EVER."
There is no doubt now but that the 4th of July celebration this year will be the "biggest thing ever" in this community. The committees are all hard at work and all necessary arrangements are being rapidly completed.

There will be plenty of oratory, shootatory and eatatory. If that combination don't bring the crowd we are greatly mistaken.

B. P. O. ELKS.
Cincinnati, Ohio, July 18th to 23d, 1904.

For the above occasion the Frankfort & Cincinnati Railway will sell tickets at $3.00 for the round trip. Dates of sale July 16th, 17th and 18th, all trains. Tickets good without deposit until August 4th, with deposit until August 25th.

'Tisn't safe to be a day without Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house. Never can tell what moment an accident is going to happen.

FOR A HUNDRED YEARS.

For a hundred years or more Witch Hazel has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, to discover how to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other anodynes, in the form of a salve. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises, and piles. The high standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name "DeWitt" on the package, and accept no other. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

KENTUCKY AT THE FAIR.

Blue Grass Traditions Splendidly Upheld and the Reputation of the State Enhanced, by T. K. Hedrick.

St. Louis, June 22, 1904.—If you ask a Kentuckian what is the principal exhibit of his State at the Fair, he probably will point in the general direction of the Administration building and say: "President Francis!" President Francis is a Kentucky product, but as Missouri, and the nation at large claim some proprietary interest in him, Kentucky has seen fit to make other representations exclusively her own.

The qualities and resources of the State are comprehensively and eloquently attested to in these exhibits, and citizens of Kentucky may well be proud of the showing made in every department to which the State has contributed, for it is represented in nearly every major department of the Exposition. In art, history, commerce, and in natural resources, Kentucky stands well forward.

A State of noble traditions and rich in storied memories of great events which have made her famous for open-hearted hospitality, Kentucky yet shows that she stands second to no locality in her commercial opportunities, nor the rewards she has to offer to individual effort, rightly applied.

Accepting the keynote of the World's Fair, which is sounded as "an exhibition of processes," the State has got in harmony with the idea, and shows the full range of her powers. In the Palace of Agriculture, Kentucky's displays include an exhibition of hemp culture, and manufactures, and the evolutionary processes of the tobacco plant, from its growth to its manufacture into finished products, which bring rosette medals to the consumer of the "philosophic weed." And of course there are illustrations of what can be done with rye and corn, without which a Kentucky display would be incomplete.

Kentucky's display of clay in the Palace of Mines and Metallurgy is in itself a wonder-world. To him who has imagined that clay was used simply to make chairs and jugs, this exhibit is a revelation. It is a liberal education in ceramics, and in the utilization of this humble material in building, fire-proofing and in art pottery. The rock quarries in operation, and the display of mined coal, in the same building, further attest the riches that lie beneath the surface of the "once Dark and Moody Ground."

The Kentuckian visiting the Fair should not fail to take cognizance of these things, nor to bear witness to what his State is doing in the way of education and art. In the Palace of Education is shown the development of the public school system of Louisville through a period of 15 years, and, no less interesting, the progress that has been made in the manual and literary education of the blind, as exemplified in the world of the pupils of the Kentucky School for the Blind.

Testifying to the activity of the State, and showing that its worth has won recognition from the masters, are several pieces of statuary by Kentucky sculptors, which are incorporated in the decorations of the main buildings of the Fair. Notable among these is a beautiful "Victory," by Miss Enid Vandel, of Louisville, crowning the dome of the Cascade Restaurant Building.

In the Palace of Fine Arts Kentucky is also well represented, but perhaps the State's best display of this nature is in the Kentucky State Building, where it shows a complete and interesting art gallery of its own. Here are numerous fine canvases by Hewitt Greene, Miss Thumb and other artists, besides striking sculptural decorations and single pieces of statuary. The building, the New Kentucky Home, is the central feature of the State's exhibit at the Fair. It is a magnificent structure, covering an area of 132 by 80 feet. Broad, gravelled paths through the lawns of native "blue grass" lead to the entrance, of which there are four. Wide porches, with symmetrical colonnades and sculptural ornaments, bespeak simplicity but eloquently the proverbial hospitality of the State, and seem to bid the passerby to pause and rest here. The wayfarer who heeds this invitation enters the building, is at once made to feel "at home"—the spirit of the place is fittingly symbolized by the State button, which bears a picture of the building, with the legend: "The Kentucky Home—its part in the world." Here pleasant hours may be spent under the guidance of the genial secretary, Mr. R. E. Hughes, or of the fair hostesses. As one views the social, artistic and sentimental sides of Kentucky life and manners. In the richly furnished rooms of the first floor are displayed the portraits of Kentucky's famous characters, as well as other specimens of native art. Pendants from the balcony of the second floor, and almost sweeping the carpet of the first, hangs a colossal and beautiful flag of silk, which possesses historic charm. It is the "home coming" flag of the battleship Kentucky, when that vessel was honorably bound from the Asiatic station, under the command of Capt. William Mallory Berry, himself a Kentuckian. Upon the arrival of the Kentucky in home waters, her officers and crew sent the flag as a present to Governor Beckham. Its beautiful folds show little effect of wear from its 13,000-mile journey across seas. Elegant parlors, reception rooms, galleries of historical relics and specimens of native flora make the second and third floors of the "home" well worth inspection.

But the "Kentucky Home" exists not merely for purposes of show. It is the scene of continuous entertainment of visitors and many formal and informal receptions. Kentucky entertains lavishly. It was one of the two States which had the distinction of receiving the delegates to the International Press Parliament, and has entertained many visiting bodies, including the American Press Guild.

The true Kentucky generosity, the officers of the commission have tendered the use of the home for entertainment purposes to several States, and the Kentucky has no official residences of the own on the grounds. Alabama, Colorado and other sections have taken advantage of this offer. A file of State papers and Kentucky books and periodicals is kept constantly on hand for the delectation of her visiting guests. And those, who may rest within the kindly precincts of the New Kentucky Home, and feel that in truth they are in a home environment. All in all, Kentucky has wrought at the Fair worthily of herself, and her children doubtless will do their part in coming to view what she has prepared in their behalf.

Bad blood and indigestion are deadly enemies to good health. Burdock Blood Bitters destroy them.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEES.

The Republican National Convention met in Chicago, Ill., on Tuesday and proceeded to the nomination of candidates for President and Vice-President.

Some very brilliant and able speeches were made by the leaders of that party.

On Thursday President Theodore Roosevelt was unanimously nominated for re-election.

U. S. Senator C. W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, was nominated by acclamation for Vice-President.

There was a splendid crowd of intelligent and progressive people present, and there was the most unprecedented harmony and good feeling prevailing.

Gov. Bradley, made one of the finest, if not the finest, speeches of his life in seconding the nomination of President Roosevelt. He met with a splendid ovation.

There is no question but that the doughty Governor is one the best orators and most popular men in his party.

REVOLUTION IMMINENT.

RIGHTLY MADE

Vehicles require no better recommendation than hard service. Hard service, honest workmanship and honest prices have sold more carriages for us than all the printed praise we could bestow upon them. You can easily satisfy yourself that this is so, and that you will obtain perfect satisfaction in every detail.

The reputation we have established for good work and fair dealing under the firm name of the Seller Carriage Co. [founded by our Mr. Yeoman and the late Henry Heimler, Esq., in 1876], we shall fully maintain, in the several departments of carriage building. Our repair and repainting departments are fully equipped, and we wish to say to our friends, should they favor us with their business, they are assured of getting the best work possible.
We have in our ware-rooms a complete stock of factory-made vehicles; also a nice line of our own make of its usual splendid quality. We are prepared to build to order any style of pleasure vehicles.

CHARLES SCOTT,
G. P. A.

Mr. Lucius Suter, of Owen county, also Miss Edith Edge, of Bridgeport, spent several days last week at Mr. Lyman Suter's and also at Mr. Ed. Sheets.

Little Myrtle Moore, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. George Moore, stuck a nail in her foot. We hope she is not seriously injured.

Mr. Irving Hays' horse was seen hitched in Mr. Murrell's yard all Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Belle Wright is the guest of her son, Mr. Benton Moore.

We had a nice rain Monday evening and nearly every body is setting tobacco.

There were a good many people playing croquet at Mr. Franklin Moore's Sunday afternoon.

Miss Ella Gore was made acquainted with Mr. Hall Sunday night.

The many friends of Mr. Lloyd Smith are pressing him to run for Constable in this district, and it is hoped that he will yield to their importunities. He is the right man for the place.

And lastly but not leastly there is considerable talk in regard to Judge R. E. Gaines announcing himself for County Judge. He made a splendid Magistrate, and he is a very able and learned lawyer and is a man of extensive and varied erudition. He should announce himself at once.

Aunt Sis Gore, the hermitess, is still in the old homestead, looking after things. She has a jolly old time with her associates, which consist of one cat and three hens. May she live long and prosper.

GOOD SPIRITS.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach, and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists.

ANOTHER "RED SAUNDERS" STORY.

Henry Wallace Phillips takes "Red Saunders" into the midst of the problems of labor and law and order at "Big Bend," in his story "A Knot and a Slash," in the July McClure's. The manner in which "Red Saunders" slashes the Gordian knot is refreshingly original and humorous. By his canniness of the men and things of his world, "Red" manages to get himself elected presiding officer at a lynch- ing bee, which doesn't come off through "Red's" own skillful manipulation. Thereby "Red" saves an innocent life and adds a hand to the shepherding force, and with all he contributes a quantity of comical incident and quaint philosophy. A. B. Frost illustrates the story in his usual accurate and artistic manner.

A COSTLY MISTAKE.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Headache, Liver or Bowel troubles. They are gentle yet thorough. 25c. at all druggists.

A FRIGHTENED HORSE.

Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a hundred other accidents are every day occurrences. It behooves every body to have a reliable Salve handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Piles disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c. at all druggists.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS.

Because It's For One Thing Only. And Frankfort Is Learning This.

Nothing can be good for everything. Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only. They're for sick kidneys.

They cure backache, every kidney ailment.

Here is Frankfort evidence to prove it.

Mrs. Anna M. Kavanaugh, widow, residing at 10, Main street, corner of Todd, says: "I received no permanent benefit from all the different medicines I took for a number of years, past trying to find relief for the intense suffering I endured across the small of my back, seemingly centered in my kidneys. I became, in fact, about tired and discouraged in my efforts to find help. At one time my condition was so bad from congestion of the kidneys that my doctors gave me up; however, I got better, and continued to suffer with the dreadful misery in my back and an annoying and distressing weakness of the kidneys. I read the splendid testimonials about Doan's Kidney Pills in our papers and this induced me to make one more effort. My grandson procured a box for me at J. W. Gayle's drug store and to my most pleasant surprise they gave me immediate relief, and by continuing the treatment I found myself remarkably improved."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Can't be perfect health without pure blood. Burdock Blood Bitters makes pure blood. Tones and invigorates the whole system.
